Article 7. Registered Agent and Address. The Marina Association hereby appoints Roger Lane Wright, whose address is 1064 Greenwood Boulevard, Suite 200, Lake Mary, Florida 32746, as its lawful statutory agent upon whom all notices and processes, including service of summons, may be served, and which when served, shall be lawful, personal service upon this corporation. The Board may, at any time, appoint another agent for such purpose and the filling of such appointment shall revoke this or any other previous appointment of such agent.

Article 8. Incorporator. The name and address of the incorporator of the Marina Association are as follows:

Roger Lane Wright
1064 Greenwood Boulevard
Suite 200
Lake Mary, Florida 32746

Article 9. Members.

(a) The Marina Association shall be a membership corporation without certificates or shares of stock. Each Slip Grantee shall be a Member of the Marina Association and shall be entitled to vote in accordance with the terms of the Declaration and the By-Laws. Membership is inseparable from being a Slip Grantee.

The Marina Association shall have two (2) classes of membership, Class "A" and Class "B". The Class "A" Members shall be all Members, except the Class "B" Member, if any. The Class "B" Member shall be the Declarant. The Class "B" Member's rights are specified in the Declaration and By-Laws. The manner of exercising voting rights shall be as set forth in the Declaration and in the By-Laws of the Marina Association.

(b) Change of membership in the Marina Association shall be established by recording in the Public Records a Slip Agreement establishing an interest in the Slip subject to the Declaration. Upon such recordation, the Slip Grantee designated by such instrument shall become a Member of the Marina Association, and the membership of the prior Slip Grantee shall be terminated.

(c) The share of a Member in the privileges, rights and assets of the Marina Association cannot be assigned, hypothecated, or transferred in any manner, except as an appurtenance of its Slip.

Article 10. Powers. The Marina Association shall have the following powers, which, unless otherwise indicated by the Governing Documents, may be exercised by the Board:

(a) all of the common law and statutory powers conferred upon nonprofit corporations under Florida law; and

(b) all of the powers necessary or desirable to perform the obligations and duties and to exercise the rights and powers set forth in these Articles, the By-Laws, or the Declaration, including, without limitation, the power:

(i) to establish, collect, and enforce payment, by any lawful means, of assessments and other charges to be levied against the Slips;

(ii) to manage, control, operate, maintain, repair, and improve the Marina Facilities and any other property for which the Marina Association by rule, regulation, covenant, or contract has a right or duty to provide such services;

(iii) to enforce covenants, conditions, or restrictions affecting any property to the extent the Marina Association may be authorized to do so under the Declaration or By-Laws;

(iv) to engage in activities which will actively foster, promote, and advance the common interests of all Members;

(v) to buy or otherwise acquire, sell, dedicate for public use, or otherwise dispose of, mortgage, or otherwise encumber, exchange, lease, own, hold, use, operate, grant easements, and otherwise deal in and with real and personal property of all kinds and any right or interest therein for any purpose of the Marina Association, subject to such limitations as may be set forth in the Declaration or By-Laws;

(vi) to borrow money for any purpose, subject to such limitations as may be set forth in the Declaration or By-Laws;

(vii) to enter into, make, perform, and enforce contracts of every kind and description, and to do all other acts necessary, appropriate, or advisable in carrying out any purpose of the Marina as Marina Association, with or in association with any other association, corporation, or other entity or agency, public or private;

(viii) to act as agent, trustee, or other representative of other corporations, firms, or individuals, and as such to advance the business or Membership interests in such corporations, firms, or individuals; and

(ix) to provide any and all services to the Marina Facilities as may be necessary or proper.

The foregoing enumeration of powers shall not limit or restrict in any manner the exercise of other rights and powers which may now or hereafter be permitted by law. The powers specified in each of the paragraphs of this Article are independent powers, not to be restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph of this Article.

(c) The Marina Association does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit, direct or indirect, to its Members and shall make no distributions of income to its Members, directors, or officers.

Article 11. Dissolution. The Marina Association may be dissolved only upon a resolution duly adopted by the Board of Directors and the approval of Members holding at least two-thirds (2/3) of the Class "A" votes in the Marina Association and, until termination of the Class "B" Membership, the written consent of the Declarant. In the event of dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Marina Association, subject to the Declaration, the Marina Association's assets remaining after payment, or provisions of payment, of all known debts and liabilities of the Marina Association shall be divided among and distributed to the Members thereof in accordance with their respective rights therein.

Article 12. Merger and Consolidation. The Marina Association may merge or consolidate only upon a resolution duly adopted by the Board of Directors and the affirmative vote of Members holding at least two-thirds (2/3) of the Class "A" votes in the Marina Association and, until termination of the Class "B" Membership, the written consent of the Declarant.

Article 13. By-Laws. The By-Laws of the Marina Association shall be adopted by the Board of Directors and may be altered, amended, or rescinded in the manner provided in the By-Laws. The quorum requirements for meetings of Members and directors shall be set forth in the Declaration and By-Laws.

Article 14. Liability of Directors and Officers. To the fullest extent that Florida law permits the limitation or elimination of the liability of directors and officers, no director or officer of the Marina Association shall be personally liable to the Marina Association or its Members for monetary damages for breach of duty of care or other duty as a director or officer. No amendment to or repeal of this Article shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any director or officer of the Marina Association for or with respect to any acts or omissions of such director or officer occurring prior to such amendment or repeal. The Marina Association shall indemnify any director, former director, officer, or former officer against liability to the fullest extent permitted under Florida law.

Article 15. Amendments. Until the termination of the Class "B" Membership, these Articles of Incorporation may amend these Articles of Incorporation for any purpose without Member approval. After termination of the Class "B" Membership, the Board may amend these Articles without Member approval (a) for those specific purposes permitted under Florida law; (b) for the purpose of bringing any provision into compliance with any applicable governmental statute, rule, regulation, or judicial determination; or (c) to satisfy the requirements of any local, state or federal agency. Other amendments to the Articles may be adopted by the Board of Directors with the approval of Members holding at least two-thirds (2/3) of the Class "A" votes in the Marina Association and, until the termination of the Class "B" Membership, the written consent of the Declarant; provided, no amendment may be in conflict with the Declaration. No amendment shall be effective to impair or dilute any rights of Members that are governed by the Declaration.

Article 16. Duration. The Marina Association shall have perpetual duration.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Incorporator has executed these Articles of Incorporation, this 3rd day of NOVEMBER, 2004.

ROGER LANE WRIGHT, Incorporator

The undersigned hereby accepts the designation of Registered Agent of Canopy Walk Marina Association, Inc., as set forth in Article 7 of these Articles of Incorporation and acknowledges that he is familiar with, and accepts the obligations imposed upon registered agents under the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act.
